Please ready carefully and complete the schedule info before your audition

Most rehearsals are weekly, lasting approximately for 45- 90 minutes, depending on what is needed for the production. Schedule will be adjusted as necessary as production time draws near.

You must be available to rehearse weekly, most will be on Saturday Afternoons between 1:30-5pm at Camelot Community Center. The expectation is that no more than 2 rehearsals are missed.

The following times are for planning rehearsals. Not all dates or full time listed will be needed. Please be a thorough as possible so we can have the most effective and efficient rehearsal process for everyone involved.

- Sunday Dec. 15th 2pm show (arrival time TBA) load out to follow

A more detailed rehearsal schedule will be posted and emailed as we draw closer to rehearsal week. The Sunday December 8th rehearsal will be afternoon and evening and the Monday through Thursday, December 9th through the 12th, rehearsals will be approximately 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The goal is to be finished by 9:00 p.m. each night but it can run later when needed. We want to get younger children home as early as possible and many roles are double cast so they may not be needed every single night. That will be determined after casting. This information is a general guideline and will be updated as the production develops.*
